Entered as second class matter April 21, 1911 at the post office at Estancia, New Mexico, under the Act of March 3, 1879.

Fortunately, it is too hot in Washington for congress to stay much longer. If it passes the reciprocity measure it may go home, for statehood is very unlikely to be reached in the senate anyhow.—El Paso Herald.

If the newspaper man was to knock on other business institutions as often as he is rapped, there would be the devil of a row. But, instead, the newspaper man plods his weary way, ignoring the abuses heaped upon him and looking on the brighter side of everything, works for the best interests of the town and country, and if his little narrow minded traducers had the nerve to throw down their hammers and boost awhile, the world would be better and they might attract some attention.—The Pioneer. Quay county, News.
